MRS. PHILANDER KELSEY
the former Miss Brenda Alberta Mann

Wed In Evening Ceremony

The First Presbyterian Church of Sparta, Tenn., was the evening setting June 18 for the wedding of Miss Brenda Alberta Mann and Mr. Philander Kelsey.

Miss Mann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rex Mann of Cookeville, Tennessee, and Mr. Kelsey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hardy Kelsey, Sr. of Sparta and formerly of Appomattox.

The Reverend Carl Stoldt, minister of the White Country Presbyterian Parish officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Musical selections began with "Because" and "Love Story" by Luke Trovarelli, music director of First Presbyterian Church, followed by "Wedding Prayer" by the groom's father during the kneeling service. Following the vows, Mr. Trovarelli sang "Climb Every Mountain". Organist was Mrs. Georgiana Parker.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose an elegant gown of white peau de soie and alencon lace. The bodice was designed with a bibbed yoke of lace adorned with seed pearls. The wedding band collar and deep stenciled cuffs of bishop sleeves were etched with scallops of lace. The semi-circular skirt bordered in matching lace cascaded into a chapel length train. Her veil was a full length mantilla of illusion bordered with lace with scattered medallions fastened to a Spanish headpiece of lace. Her bridal bouquet of blue daisies was centered with white roses and baby's breath.

Miss Kim Hudgens of Sparta was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Karen Kelsey, of Sparta, sister of the groom, and Miss Terry Duncan of Columbia, Virginia, cousin of the groom. They wore identical dresses of cotillion blue macracane jersey that featured a white winged collar edged in a self ruffle. The tapered sleeves were also ruffled at the wrist. The skirt was held in gathers at the empire bodice. They wore hats of blue nylon braid, and carried white roses and baby's breath and streamers.

Mr. Kelsey was his son's best man. Ushers were Raymond Hardy Kelsey, Jr., brother of the groom, and Michael Shockley of Sparta.

Miss Cheryl Dawn Simpson from Appomattox, Virginia, cousin of the groom was flower girl. She wore a blue, floor length dress bordered with lace and ribbon and carried a basket of daisy petals. Robert Lee England, IV, from Gallatin, Tenn., was ring bearer.

Mrs. Mann chose for her daughter's wedding an apricot dress with matching scarf. The groom's mother wore a sheer blue floral dress with old fashioned ecru lace. Mrs. Charles Simpson, from Prospect, Va., grandmother of the groom, wore a mint green dress with sheer sleeves and lace trim. They had similar corsages of white roses, accented with miniature wedding bells.

Pamela Cox, Irie C. Mays Exchange Vows

The marriage of Miss Pamela Lynn Cox to Irie Clinton Mays took place Saturday morning at 11 o'clock on the lawn at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert E. Mays, in Appomattox.

MRS. BERNARD RAY TYREE
the former Miss Ellen Gail Jones

Wed In Afternoon Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Ellen Gail Jones to Mr. Bernard Ray Tyree took place at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 19, at Salem United Methodist Church, Spout Spring, Va.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Jones, Jr. of Spout Spring, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Tyree of Lynchburg. The Reverend L. L. Schwemer, of Stuart, Va., officiated at the double ring ceremony and was soloist, singing the Lord's Prayer. He was accompanied on the organ by Miss Patsy Hughes, who provided a program of nuptial music preceding the ceremony.

The bride, escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents, wore a white satin gown hand fashioned by herself with an empire waist and elbow length cape of alecon lace appliques with embroidered seed pearls on organza over white satin. A full length white satin circular chapel train fell from the back bodice and was covered by the full length veil adorned at the bottom with lace applique and seed pearls. The single layer of white tulle fell from a lace picture hat embroidered with seed pearls. The bride wore a choker necklace of cultured pearls with matching earrings, a gift of the groom. The bride carried a bouquet of yellow roses, white daisies, white chrysanthemums and baby's breath, from which she removed a shoulder corsage.

Mrs. James S. Crockett, Jr. of Welsh, W. Va., and Mrs. James D DeLes DeMeir of Richmond, were matrons of honor. Mrs. Crickett wore a floor length A-line yellow knit dress with V-neck and short cap sleeves. Her white hat trimmed with matching yellow satin ribbon was decorated with white daisies. Mrs. DeLes DeMeir wore a mint green floor length knit dress of the same style as the other honor attendant. A white hat trimmed with matching mint with green satin ribbon and white daisies completed her outfit. Both honor attendants carried identical nosegays of yellow roses, white daisies and baby's breath with white streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Shelly Lee Scott of Bedford, cousin of the bride, and Miss Karen Marie Wuttke of Lynchburg. They wore mint green knit dresses identical in style to those of the honor attendants and white hats with green satin ribbon trim decorated with white daisies. Both bridesmaids carried a single yellow rose surrounded with white daisies, baby's breath and white and yellow rose petals and her hair was adorned with a bando of white daisies.

The bride's mother wore a V-neck empire waist sea green knit floor length gown with wing chiffon sleeves, complimented by a white cymbidium orchid presented to her by the bride.

The groom's mother wore a V-neck empire waist medium blue floor length knit gown with long tapered sleeves accented with a darker blue trim at the bustline and complimented by a white cymbidium orchid corsage, presented to her by the groom.

Mr. Larry E. Tyree of Appomattox was his brother's best man. Ushers were Herbert Barry Jones and Charlie Alan Jones of Spout Spring, brothers of the bride and John Timothy Schwemmer of Stuart, Va.

Mrs. William B. Igoe, of Newport News, Va., aunt of the bride, was mistress of ceremonies. The guests were registered by Mrs. Sharon Nolen of Lynchburg.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception on the church lawn, directed by Mrs. June Chenault and Mrs. Edith Scruggs. Serving the cake were Mrs. Neil E. Scott of Bedford, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Harold Jones of Spout Spring, and at the punch bowls were Mrs. Steven Yost of Roanoke and Mrs. Roger Garner of Lynchburg. Presiding at the bride's table was Miss Deirdre Igo, cousin of the bride.

The bride is a 1969 graduate of Appomattox High School, a 1973 graduate of VPI & SU and a 1974 graduate of Roanoke Memorial Hospital School of Medical Technology, and is presently employed at Virginia Baptist Hospital in Lynchburg.

The groom is a 1965 graduate of E. C. Glass High School, a 1974 graduate of VPI &SU and is a certified public accountant and holds the position of vice-president and secretary of Floyd-Tyree and Co., P.C., in Lynchburg.

After a southern wedding trip the couple will reside in Lynchburg.

Named To Dean's List

A total of 289 students in Virginia Tech's College of Education made the dean's list during the spring quarter. One hundred and nine made all A's or a perfect 4.0 average.

Linda M. Dudley of Appomattox, a senior in elementary education, made a 4.0 average; and Jesse W. Morgan, a junior in agricultural education, made the dean's list.

To make the dean's list at Tech, a student has to make a 3.4 average or better in the University's 4.0 grading system. A 3.4 is the equivalent of a middle B. average.
